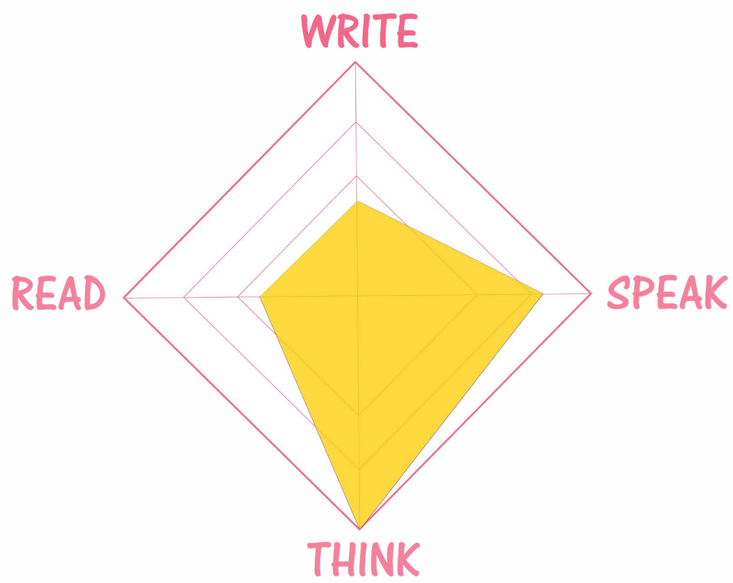
Fall Term 2021

THINK

Our Critical Thinking Socrates Program aims to instill in students the key transferable skills and intellectual tools necessary for effective lifelong learning. Mastering critical and lateral thinking capabilities will prepare students for their transition from local to international schools, the intense researches in IB projects, the in-depth investigation of A Levels and the current affairs analysis for DSE Liberal Studies.

Key Course Structure

- Topics: Current Affairs, Open-ended Questions
- Skills: Questioning, Critical Analysis, Multi-perspective Thinking
- Deliverables: Essays, Improv, Debates, Interviews



LEVEL	DESCRIPTION	DEMO QUESTIONS	APPLICATION
Level 1 (P4-P6) (S01) Ages 9-11	The world is changing, mostly for the better, but sometimes also for the worst as well. These changes make us reconsider how we use technology to improve our lives, enhance our knowledge and understanding of the world, and innovate ways to preserve and protect nature. Socrates this fall will begin a course of discovery in how we can master the tools to build a better community for the world of tomorrow.	• Why is a painting worth more AFTER being destroyed? • Why is something as identical as the iPhone so expensive?	Questioning, Critical Thinking, Essay writing, Improv Presentation, Debate, MUN, Model Presidential Elections
Level 2 (S1-S3) (S02) Ages 12-14	As the world contends with crisis after crisis, we see a world that is closer together in experience but further apart in action. In this fall term of Socrates, we will visit the fabric of the world village through the lens of security, diplomatic and environmental challenges. We will be enhancing students' skills in research and critical analysis as we investigate the frameworks that bind countries together as well as consider how solutions for evolving uncertainties that governments face.	• Does buying from poor countries have be be hurtful to the poor? • Does the government have to stand for something or someone?
