Foundation

(Ages 7-8) (P2-P3) (G2-G3) (Y3-Y4) (WWF) | Theme: Poems and Diaries

Students will discover various poetic forms, develop personal narratives reflecting their daily experiences, and foster creativity by imagining new inventions. Through interactive lessons and collaborative activities, they will build confidence in their writing skills, culminating in a collection of original poems and diary entries.

Language Skills

- Metaphors
- Onomatopoeia
- Personification
- Sequencing words

Assessments

- Students will complete a mix of reading and writing assessments over two units
- Unit 1: Written test and narrative poem writing task about inventions
- Unit 2: Written test and diary writing as an inanimate object

Program Details: 1.5 hours per lesson, total 34 lessons

Junior

(Ages 9-10) (P4-P5) (G4-G5) (Y5-Y6) (WWJ) | Theme: The Life of Science

In this semester, we will explore how science shapes stories and society through both narrative and expository formats. In Unit 1, students will be reading an array of science fiction, from past to present, to learn how to develop their own imaginative narratives. In Unit 2, students will shift to expository writing by composing a formal interview article with a well-known figure, learning to integrate hyperbole and both direct and indirect speech for clarity and emphasis.

Language Skills

- Point of view
- Characterisation
- Direct and indirect speech
- Hyperbole

Assessments

- Students will complete a written assessment in class, which counts for 50% of the final grade, and finish one writing project per unit, the other 50%.
- Unit 1: Writing project: Sci-fi story
- Unit 2: Writing project: A formal interview article of a famous person

Program Details: 1.5 hours per lesson, total 34 lessons
