Level 1 (Ages 9-11) (P4-P6) (SO1)

Be inspired by your surroundings! The ability to seek higher level relations in your daily observations is pivotal in encouraging young learners to think out of the box! The classes will go beyond fashion and public transportation, and explore how these luxuries we take for granted can be linked to wider social issues such as poverty, human rights and more!

Demo Questions

- Why is a painting worth more AFTER being destroyed?
- Why is something as identical as the iPhone so expensive?

Level 2 (Ages 12-14) (S1-S3) (SO2)

Civil wars in the Middle East, hate crimes in the US, terrorist attacks that threaten the world – these tragedies are featured daily on the news, yet they seem to be distant problems to our Hong Kong teens. How might everyone of us as global citizens be responsible for world events, be it directly or indirectly? Join us to explore the “relate the unrelated” realities of life!

Demo Questions

- Does buying from poor countries hurt the poor?
- Does the government need to stand up for something or someone?
